Asian Chicken Salad

For Mother's Day, this year, we are honoring John's mother Carol. This was her very favorite recipe. There was ALWAYS a jar of this salad dressing in the refrigerator. The great thing about it is that it is the easiest thing in the world, yet so much better than any store-bought version. We don't know where she found this recipe for Asian Dressing - maybe Sunset Magazine or the L.A. Times, but wherever it came from, it has been a staple in our household for decades. We hope you love it as much as we do.

Asian Dressing

1 cup seasoned rice wine vinegar
1/2 cup vegetable oil
1/4 cup soy sauce
3 tbs toasted sesame oil
1/4 tsp cayenne pepper

Just throw all these ingredients into a jar and shake it up. TA DA! This makes enough for probably 6 servings of salad. We just make this quantity and keep it in the fridge.

For our favorite salad, we combine:

spring mixed greens
chopped romaine lettuce
chopped red cabbage
diced red bell pepper
diced cucumber
sliced green onions
cilantro
fried won ton strips
